Nittany Lions Seek 33rd Straight Non-Losing Season

Penn State in 1971 will be shooting for its 33rd straight season without a losing record. The Nittany Lions last lost more grid games than they won in 1938, when the record was 3-4-1. Since then they've registered 26 straight winning seasons (1939 through 1964), two 5-0 seasons (5-5) in 1965 and 1966, an 8-2 campaign in 1967, two unbeaten 11-0 seasons in 1968 and 1969 and a 7-3 finish last year. They've posted 209 regular-season victories against 78 defeats and 9 ties since 1938, produced unbeaten elevens in 1947, 1968, and 1969, won Eastern championships in 1947, 1961, 1962, 1964, 1967, 1968, 1969, and following eight campaigns — 1947-59-60-61-62-67-68-69 — went to major bowl games.

HOME SCHEDULE SOLD OUT

Penn State is assured of its position as the top collegiate football attraction in the East.

The Nittany Lions sold out their entire five-game home schedule four months before their first home game. The Oct. 23 Homecoming Day game with TCU and the Nov. 13 game with North Carolina State officially became sellouts on June 1.

Penn State officials had earlier announced sellouts for the Oct. 2 date with the Air Force Academy, Oct. 9 with Army and Nov. 6 with Maryland.

This is the second year in a row tickets for all Penn State home games have been sold out before the start of the season.

The Lions drew a total of 241,055 fans to Beaver Stadium last year. Four of the five games drew crowds in excess of the 48,344 seating capacity, but poor weather limited the Ohio U. game attendance to 43,000.

In 1969 they drew a record total of 245,942 fans, an average of 49,188 per game. Last year's average was 48,211 per game.

Most of these records are expected to be broken in 1971 when an estimated total of 250,000 people will flock to Beaver Stadium.

Beaver Stadium — Home of the Nittany Lions

Penn State, which played its home games from 1909 through 1959 in 30,000-capacity Beaver Field on center campus, moved into a 46,284-capacity all steel stadium in 1960. Additional seats were added during the past few years, bringing the present capacity to 48,344. Beaver Stadium is a unique assembly of something old and something new. The old stadium was dismantled after the 1959 season and moved in 700 pieces a mile and a half to the new east-campus location. It was reassembled beneath the new superstructure — and now towers 70 rows high from goal line to goal line. The closed end of the horseshoe remains as it was, 35 rows high. Steel men say it is the largest all-steel stadium in the country, and probably in the world. There are 48,344 permanent seats (with 30,284 between the goal lines), and room for approximately 2,000 temporary bleacher seats in the open end of the horseshoe. The stadium is named for General James A. Beaver, a former Pennsylvania governor who served for many years as president of the Penn State Board of Trustees. There is ample parking space.

About the System

The Nittany Lions will continue to play a multiple offense in 1970, with emphasis on the wing-T. Featured will be a wide variety of formations from which the objectives are an attempt to develop balance between effective inside and outside running attacks, and consistent passing.

Defensively, the Lions usually will operate with a four-man line, four linebackers (one of whom may be a rover at times), and a deep secondary of two halfbacks and a safety.

LEGEND OF THE NITTANY LION

Penn State's athletic symbol, chosen by the student body in 1906, is a mountain lion once said to have roamed the central-Pennsylvania mountains. Because Penn State is located in the Nittany Valley at the foot of Mt. Nittany, the lion was designated as a Nittany Lion. Nittany evolved from the word Nita-Nee, which was the favorite cognomen for Indian maidens. Legend tells us that one Nita-Nee, the daughter of Chief O-Ko-Cho who lived near the mouth of Penn's Cave, fell in love with a trader named Malachi Boyer. For this Boyer was imprisoned and forced to die in Penn's Cave. The tearful maiden and her lost lover became legend and her name now graces the stately mountain and the athletic teams of Penn State.

Nittany Lion Dress for 1971

Home — White helmets with blue stripe; Penn State-blue jerseys with white numbers; white pants with blue trim; blue and white stockings.

Away — White helmets with blue stripe; white jerseys with blue numbers; white pants with blue trim; blue and white stockings.

THE SEASON OUTLOOK

Penn State football coach Joe Paterno says he is looking forward to the start of fall practice on August 27.

"I'm not sure we accomplished all of our objectives during the spring, but we came fairly close," the Nittany Lion coach says. "I'm satisfied with our offensive line situation and the defensive secondary won't be a problem if we make normal progress in the fall. In fact, the secondary could turn out to be one of our strengths."

The offensive line and defensive backfield were the areas of prime concern to Paterno when the Lions opened their spring practice in April. The Lion coach was also looking for leaders.

"We should have outstanding leadership from Charley Zapiec and Dave Joyner," the Lion coach notes. "Both are outstanding football players with great leadership qualities."

Zapiec, an outside linebacker from Philadelphia, will captain the defense. Joyner, an All-American candidate as an offensive tackle, will be the captain when the Lions have the ball.

Strong Points

Paterno lists linebacking, running backs and quarterbacks as strong points on this year's team.

"We appear to have a great deal of depth in our linebackers and offensive backfield," he says. "We are also tougher physically than we were at this stage a year ago."

The Lion linebackers are Zapiec, converted tackle Doug Allen and returning starters Gary Gray and John Skorupan. They are backed up by a talented group that includes returnees Jim Laslavic and Larry Ludwig and sophomores Joe Carlozo, Gary Hager and Mike Orsini.

The offensive backfield picture is particularly bright. Paterno can call on three returning regulars in quarterback John Hufnagel, halfback Lydell Mitchell and fullback Franco Harris. Senior Glen Cole at wingback rounds out the probable starting backfield.

Hufnagel, who won the starting quarterback job in the middle of his sophomore season last year, took control of the Lions' final spring scrimmage. A crowd of approximately 20,000 watched the Lion junior pass for two touchdowns and run for another in directing his team to a 36-7 victory.

Mitchell, a 5-11, 197-pound halfback, was also brilliant during the spring drills. Mitchell, who has gained over 1,300 yards in his two varsity seasons, was named co-winner of the Red Worrell Trophy.

The trophy is for "exemplary conduct, loyalty, interest, attitude and improvement" during spring football practice. Mitchell shared the award with center Mike Botts.

Harris, the Lions' 220-pound fullback, missed the last three weeks of spring practice with a slight leg injury. He was replaced by sophomore Tom Donchez. Harris, who also has gained more than 1,300 yards in two years, will be ready in the fall.

Newcomers Emerge

Donchez was one of several newcomers to emerge during the spring drills. Other new faces with promise are quarterbacks Steve Joachim and Jack Koniszewski and halfbacks Dave Bland and John Cappelletti. Paterno can also call on returnees Ken Andrews, Eric Bass, Carl Cayette and Steve Stillely.

Botts, who backed up Warren Koegel the last two seasons at offensive center, is one of the reasons Paterno is pleased with the development of the offensive line.

"I think this offensive line has the potential to be as good as last year," Paterno says. "Joyner is outstanding, Botts has improved greatly and we appear to have some depth."

Joining Joyner at tackle will be either Craig Lyle or Bob Rickenbach. Both juniors, Lyle and Rickenbach alternated as the starting left tackle during the spring. The guards appear to be returning starter Bob Knechtel and junior Carl Schaukowitz with Botts at center.

The starters are all being pushed by a sophomore group that includes Mark Markovich, Phil LaPorta and Charley Getty.

Junior John Skarzynski and senior Bob Parsons appear to be the top candidates for the offensive end jobs. Skarzynski was the regular split end all spring. Parsons was moved from quarterback to tight end midway through the spring drills and showed marked improvement at his new spot.

The Lions have three starters returning on the defensive line, but Paterno is concerned with an apparent lack of size.

"We will have to rely on speed and quickness to offset the weight advantage we will give to most of our opponents," Paterno says.

The returnees are Bruce Bannon (211) at defensive end plus tackles Jim Heller (232) and Frank Ahrenhold (221). The other defensive end job is still up for grabs in the fall.

Nobody is assured of a job in the defensive secondary, but Paterno is confident that capable men will emerge from a group that includes returnees Stan Baran, Steve Davis, Gregg Ducatte and Chuck Mesko and newcomers Gary Debes, Buddy Ellis, Scott Mitchell, Bob Nagle and Ed O'Neil. The 6-3, 224-pound O'Neil could be switched to defensive end or linebacker.

The kicking game should be outstanding with Parsons doing the punting and newcomer Alberto Vitiello, a left-footed, soccer-style kicker, handling the place-kicking duties.

"We have a young squad that should get better as the season progresses," Paterno says. "If we can escape injuries early in the year before our young people get some polish, it could develop into a good team."

Coach Joe Paterno says:

A collection of Paterno comments on a variety of football subjects:

— The new crack-back blocking rule might be a good one. We'll have to try some things and find out. I don't think it's going to have any far-reaching effects.

— The rule change I'd like to see would be to bring the hash marks in 20 yards from the sideline. That would make for a really wide open game. The college game would benefit more by this change than the pros because we have the quarterbacks to run the option.

— I think college football should have a playoff. We ought to say right now that no games should be scheduled as of 1976. Then we should appoint a blue ribbon committee with members of every group concerned — conference commissioners, bowl people, coaches, newspapermen, faculty representatives and so forth. This committee should be given a year to come up with a playoff format. But the first thing we have to do is freeze the schedules as of 1976. That's the big thing.

* * * * *

— There may be less throwing in college football this year than in the past few seasons. Pass defenses have become so sophisticated that you really won't see so many teams throwing successfully unless they have a strong running game to complement the passing.

* * * * *

— College attendance has been increasing steadily and I think the trend will continue this year. We have an exciting game with more plays and more scoring than the pros.

* * * * *

— Intangibles are a big part of every football team and I think this is a positive for us. We should have good leadership and this is a close-knit group. They are enthusiastic and hard-working.

* * * * *

— One of our main objectives in the fall will be to make a decision on who is going to play in the secondary. The sooner we decide the better off we'll be. We want to give them an opportunity to play together.

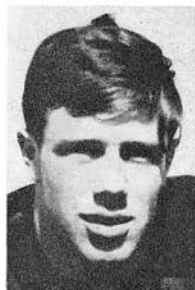

* * * * *

— I was pleased with the way our passing game progressed during the last part of spring practice, but we are going to continue to work on it.

The Coaches

JOE PATERNO

Head Football Coach
Penn State University

Penn State football coach Joe Paterno has a dream.

"It sounds corny, I guess, but I have a dream. I would like to see Penn State number one in everything. We are very proud of our program and the type of people we have in it. I want to see them right up on top."

Paterno is not just an idle dreamer. In five years as head coach, he has become the nation's winningest college football coach with an enviable record of 42 wins, 10 losses and a tie. His .802 winning percentage puts him ahead of Nebraska's Bob Devaney, who is second at .791.

Paterno coached Penn State to 23 straight wins and 31 consecutive games without a defeat, two of the longest streaks in college football history. He has had three bowl teams, including back-to-back Orange Bowl champions in 1969 and 1970.

Awards and honors have accumulated almost as fast as victories. Paterno was named Coach of the Year in 1968. He has twice been named Eastern Coach of the Year. He joined the likes of Stan Musial, Arnold Palmer and Robin Roberts as recipients of the Pennsylvania Award for Excellence in Athletics.

Paterno has turned aside professional football offers that would mean financial security for the rest of his life.

Listening to him explain why gives you a pretty good insight into the man.

"My genuine love for a great University . . . the relationship of a college coach with fine young men at such a vital state of their lives . . . my personal goal of giving Penn State the best of big-time football within the framework of sound academic and financial policies and my deep belief that football can and should be fun and make a strong contribution to higher education."

Paterno, who brings to coaching qualities of intellect and integrity, likes to talk about football at Penn State as the "Grand Experiment."

"We want our players to enjoy football," he says. "We want them to enjoy college. We want them to learn about art and literature and music and all the other things college has to offer. College should be a great time. It is the only time a person is really free. We don't want them just tied to a football program."

And that's the way Paterno recruits. There are no wild promises or empty guarantees. There is no red shirting or lowering of admission standards. It's made clear early in a player's career that education and academic scholarship are paramount.

This experiment is Paterno's dream of being able to build great football teams without making concessions in vital areas of academic quality.

Paterno also senses his place in Penn State's football history.

"We are all part of a great tradition," he says, "a winning tradition started 32 years ago by Coach Bob Higgins and continued under Rip Engle. We have a great responsibility to carry on this tradition."

Paterno has come quite a distance since 1949 when he was a skinny-legged quarterback at Brown whose play caused the late Stanley Woodward to write:

"He can't run and he can't pass. All he can do is think — and win."

But at Brown he quarterbacked two of Rip Engle's best teams (7-2 in '48 and 8-1 in '49) and also played varsity basketball.

Paterno, however, almost missed his calling to the coaching profession, following his graduation from Brown in 1950 with a degree in English Literature.

"I had planned a career in law, or perhaps even politics," Paterno explains, "until Rip told me he had taken the Penn State job and asked if I would go along and coach the offensive backs."

Joe decided to give it a brief try, "just to broaden my experience before going to law school." He had been accepted by the Boston University Law School.

That was 21 years ago.

"I grew to love Penn State so much that after two or three years with Rip I dreamed about nothing other than becoming its head coach someday," said Paterno. "It's the only job I ever really wanted in coaching."

During his 16 years as Engle's assistant he achieved national recognition for his development of quarterbacks like All-American Richie Lucas, Milt Plum, Al Jacks, Tony Rados, Dick Hoak, Galen Hall and Pete Liske.

Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 21, 1926, Paterno attended Brooklyn Preparatory School (Class of '45), where he played in the same backfield with his brother George, coach at Kings Point.

In his senior year at Brooklyn Prep, Joe was the star of an 8-1 team whose only defeat was to St. Cecilia's of Englewood, N.J., a powerhouse coached by the late Vince Lombardi.

Paterno was in the Army in 1945 and 1946, serving part of his tour of duty with the Army of Occupation in Korea. He entered Brown following his military discharge.

Joe married the former Suzanne Pohl and of Latrobe, Pa., in 1962. She's a Penn State graduate, Class of 1962. They have two daughters, Diana Lynne (born 4-7-63) and Mary Kathryn (b. 1-13-65) and two sons, David (b. 7-1-66) and Joseph Jr. (b. 10-21-68).

A man with a sharp sense of humor and wit, Paterno loves lively discussions on a wide range of topics — especially politics, current events, history, and of course, sports.

The most exciting aspect of coaching?

"The day in and day out work with young men," Paterno says. "You work with them, work with them and work with them — they have confidence in you and you in them, and all of a sudden on a Saturday afternoon you look up and there are 50,000 people and your players wonder whether they can do the job and you wonder if you've been able to get the job across to them. Then the whistle blows and you're in the middle of things. It's great excitement — a great feeling of pride when the players and coaches get the job done. Of course, you're frustrated when you don't, but this part too is exciting — and part of the whole thing."

PATERNO NATION'S WINNINGEST COACH

Penn State's Joe Paterno is the nation's "winningest" college football coach.

Official records released by National Collegiate Sports Services put Paterno at the top of the active coaches with at least five years coaching at a major college.

In five years as Penn State's head coach, Paterno has built an enviable record of 42 wins, 10 losses and a tie for a winning percentage of .802. Nebraska's Bob Devaney is second with a .793 percentage in 14 seasons.

The nation's winningest coaches:

Penn State '46

Chuck Medlar, head trainer for all Penn State athletic teams, as well as baseball coach, was also head trainer for the United States Olympic Team in Mexico City in 1968.

The Lion trainer recently received two of the top honors of his profession. He was given a 25-year award by the National Athletic Trainers Association and was cited by the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame "for noteworthy achievement in athletic training."

Medlar, a 1946 graduate of Penn State, attended Allentown (Pa.) High School where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Following a year at Pennington (N.J.) Prep, he entered Penn State in 1938 and competed in football, basketball and baseball as a tackle, center and pitcher, respectively.

He left college in 1941 to play professional baseball with Beaumont (Texas League) as property of the Detroit Tigers and in 1942 moved to Buffalo of the International League.

He entered the Navy December, 1942, serving overseas at Pearl Harbor and Midway as a chief petty officer. Discharged in 1946, he rejoined Buffalo only to have his professional career ended because of a sore arm. He returned to Penn State in September, 1946, as assistant to trainer Jack Hulme and to complete his studies.

When Hulme died that same year, Medlar who had assisted him in 1940 after a knee injury forced him out of football, succeeded him as trainer and in 1948 was appointed to the physical education faculty.

In 1950, 1951, 1952 and 1953 he was selected as trainer for the North team in the Blue-Gray games.

He was a trainer for the U.S. Olympic team in the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo and recently was named to the U.S. Olympic Medical and Training Services Committee.

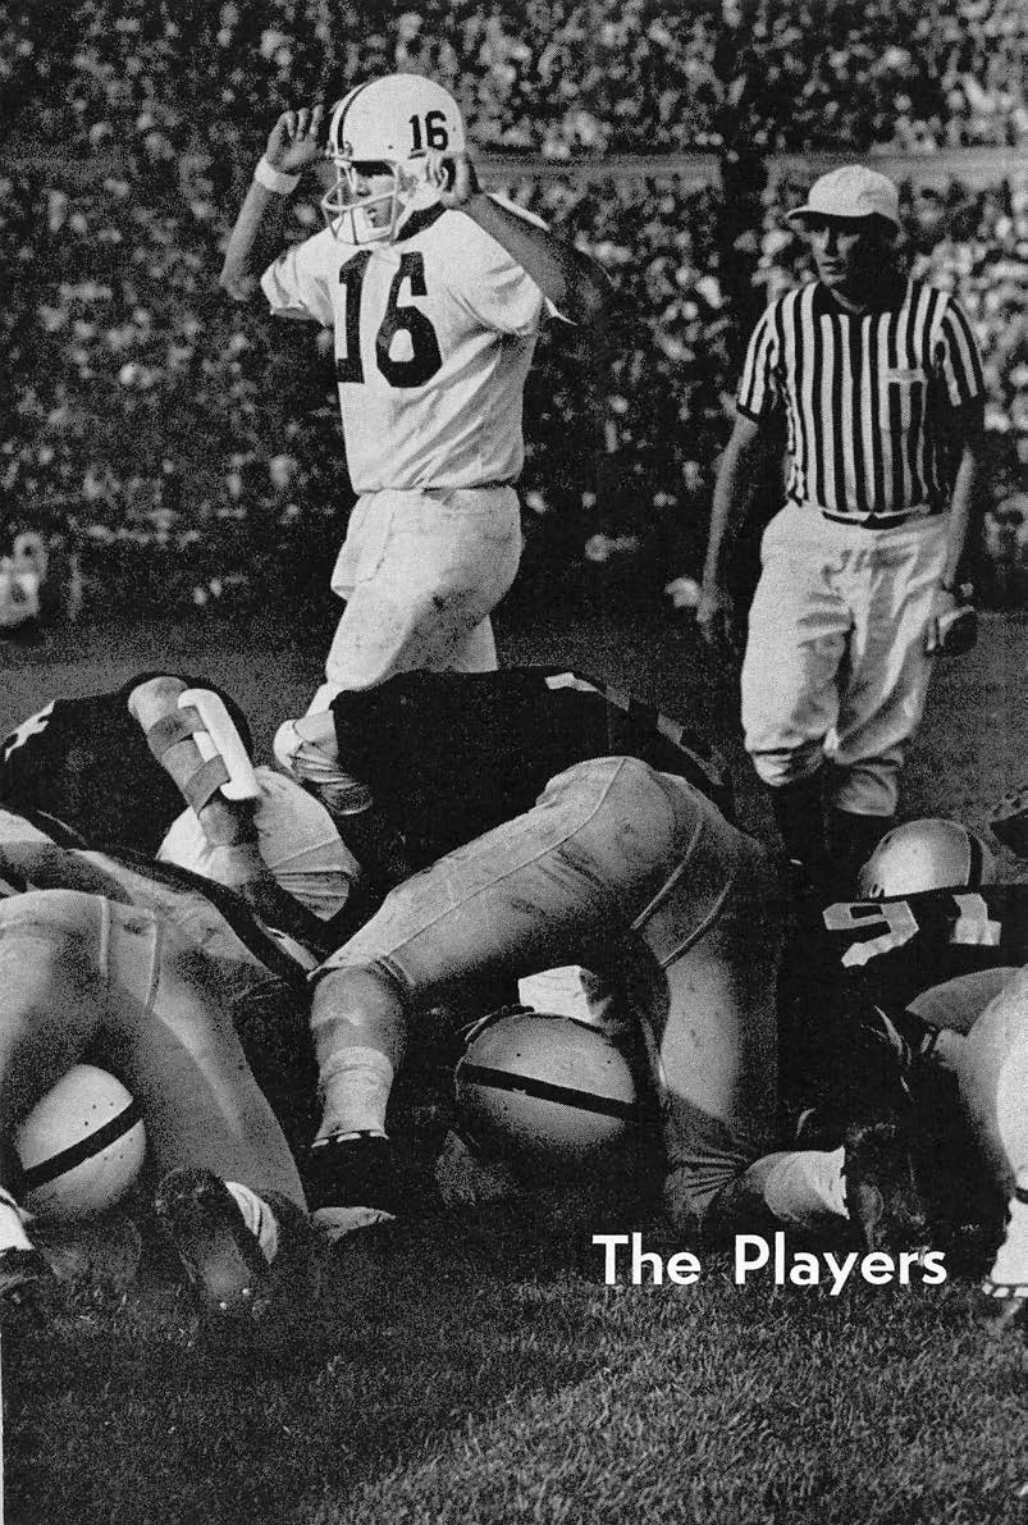

In nine seasons as head baseball coach, Medlar has directed the Lions to 128 victories against just 70 defeats and three ties. Four times — 1963, 1967, 1970 and 1971 — his teams have won invitations to the NCAA District 2 playoffs, and once, in 1963, the Lions were district champions and an entrant in the College World Series at Omaha.

PROBABLE TOP SOPHOMORES:

Dave Bland	OHB	6-11½	192	Philadelphia, Pa.
John Cappelletti	OHB	6-1	206	Upper Darby, Pa.
Tom Donchez	FB	6-2	202	Bethlehem, Pa.
Buddy Ellis	DHB	5-11½	166	Pittsburgh, Pa.
Charley Getty	OT	6-4	248	Pompton Lakes, N. J.
Steve Joachim	QB	6-3½	205	Havertown, Pa.
Phil LaPorta	OG	6-3	239	Valley Stream, N. Y.
Mark Markovich	OG	6-4	233	Latrobe, Pa.
Bob Nagle	DHB	6-1	192	East Paterson, N. J.
Ed O'Neil	DHB-DE	6-3	224	Warren, Pa.

CURRENT PROBLEM SPOTS: Inexperience in offensive line and defensive secondary although both areas showed promise and improvement in spring drills.

PROBABLE STRENGTHS: Offensive backfield with Hufnagel, Harris, and Mitchell returning and linebacking with four potential all-stars in Allen, Gray, Skorupan and Zapiec. Defensive line also looks strong with returning starters Ahrenhold, Bannon and Heller.

KEY POSITION CHANGES: Bob Parsons, two-year letterman as a back-up quarterback, was shifted to tight end midway through the spring drills and looked good at his new position. Parsons has the size (6-4½, 236) and the speed to become a standout.

Doug Allen, who alternated with Ahrenhold and Heller as the regular defensive tackles last year, was switched to inside linebacker. A linebacker in high school, Allen made the switch easily and strengthens an already strong group of linebackers.

Lions Enrolled in Varied Majors

That Penn State players are planning an interesting variety of careers following graduation is evidenced by the wide range of major fields of study among members of this year's squad. And most are standout students too. For 24 consecutive terms the composite scholastic average of football lettermen has been higher than the all-male University average.

'70 LIONS RANK HIGH IN NATIONAL STATS

Penn State's 1970 team ranked third nationally in pass interceptions, sixth in rushing defense and seventh in rushing offense, according to statistics released by National Collegiate Sports Services.

The Nittany Lions intercepted 26 of the 240 passes attempted against them for an interception percentage of 10.8 per cent. The Lions surrendered only 100.8 yards per game rushing. Penn State's ground troops accounted for 276.9 yards per game rushing.

1970 IN REVIEW

They Came Back . . .

To Joe Paterno, the 1970 football season was even more rewarding in many ways than Penn State's perfect 11-0 seasons in 1968 and 1969.

"I was really pleased with the 1970 team," Paterno said at the end of the season. "They just never quit when things were going badly. They had great character, great pride. They came back and were a very good football team at the end of the year."

Jack Ham, All-American linebacker and defensive captain, echoed Paterno's feelings about the season.

"It was a more rewarding year than either of the unbeaten seasons," Ham said. "When we started to lose, we felt like we were letting everyone down. Then we came back. That's why I'm proud of the team. We came back and played the kind of football people expect from Penn State."

The Nittany Lions won their last five games of the season, boosting their final record to 7-3. The Lions had struggled through the first five games with a 2-3 record before Paterno made some adjustments. He inserted sophomore John Hufnagel at quarterback and simplified the offense, relying heavily on a strong ground attack.

The coaching strategy paid off. The Lions averaged 336.8 yards rushing and 36.2 points per game over the last half of the season.

"We were making a lot of mistakes early in the season and I felt it was time to make a change," Paterno recalls. "We went back to the things we do best."

After giving the ball away 22 times on fumbles and interceptions in the first five games, the Lions turned the ball over only six times in the last five games.

The 1970 team broke or tied 11 school records during the season. Two individual marks and nine team standards were matched or surpassed.

Split end Greg Edmonds was one of the individual record-breakers. The lanky 6-3 senior caught six touchdown passes, breaking the season record of five set by Les Walters in 1957. Edmonds was the team's leading receiver for the second straight season with 38 receptions for 506 yards.

The other individual record belongs to Mike Smith, senior defensive halfback who came up with four interceptions against Ohio University. Don Caum had set the record with three steals against Maryland in 1962.

Smith's team-leading total of five interceptions helped the Lions tie the team season record of 26, set in 1952. Linebackers Ham and sophomore John Skorupan and senior safety Terry Stump all had four thefts.

The Lions tied a single game record with seven interceptions against Boston College, matching the total in the 1970 Orange Bowl win over Missouri.

The powerful ground attack, led by Hufnagel and running backs Lydell Mitchell and Franco Harris, accounted for most of the new team records. New marks were established for first downs (210), rushing plays (617) and rushing yardage in one season (2,769). The average gain of 4.5 yards per rush tied a record.

Mitchell was the Lions' leading rusher with 751 yards and an average of 5.6 yards per carry. Harris gained 675 yards on the ground, and was the team's leading scorer with 48 points. Mitchell and Edmonds each scored 36 points.

The other three team records all concern streaks. The Lions' 55-7 opening game win over Navy boosted the longest unbeaten streak in Penn State history to 31 games, the longest winning streak to 23 games and the longest regular season winning streak to 28 games.

1970 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

Penn State 55, Navy 7

University Park, Pa., Sept. 19 — Penn State could do very little wrong and Navy could do very little right here today as the Nittany Lions rolled to an impressive 55-7 victory. A crowd of 48,566 watched in awe as the Lions awoke after a scoreless first period to score 28 points in the second quarter. Senior quarterback Mike Cooper passed for two touchdowns (strikes of 21 and 27 yards to split end Greg Edmonds) and ran one yard for another score to lead the Lion assault. Penn State's other scores came on an eight-yard run by Franco Harris, a 50-yard punt return by Mike Smith, a 53-yard run by Lydell Mitchell, a 14-yard pass from Bob Parsons to Glen Cole and a two-yard plunge by Mike Reitz. Navy's only touchdown came in the third period on a one-yard dive by Andy Pease.

Colorado 41, Penn State 13

Boulder, Colo., Sept. 26 — A Folsom Stadium crowd of 42,850 and a national television audience watched a fired-up Colorado team snap Penn State's unbeaten streak of 31 games and winning streak of 23 games with a stunning 41-13 victory. Mike Cooper had a rough day at quarterback, turning the ball over three times in Penn State territory in the first quarter — twice on interceptions and once on a fumble. All three mistakes led to Colorado scores. A one-yard plunge by tailback John Tarver and field goals of 35 and 48 yards by Dave Haney gave the Buffs a 13-0 lead at the end of the first period. Penn State narrowed the margin to 13-7 on a six-yard run by Franco Harris in the second period, but a one-yard plunge by Ron Rieger gave Colorado a 20-7 halftime lead. Sprinter Cliff Branch returned the second half kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown that put the Buffs in front 27-7. Penn State took the ball after the kickoff and marched to the Colorado two-yard line before being stopped. A 19-yard run by fullback Ward Walsh boosted the Colorado lead to 34-7 at the end of the third quarter. The teams exchanged touchdowns in the last period, Penn State scoring on a two-yard pass from Bob Parsons to Greg Edmonds before Colorado completed the scoring with a 17-yard pass from Paul Arendt to Rick Kay.

Wisconsin 29, Penn State 16

Madison, Wisc., Oct. 3 — Wisconsin took advantage of numerous Penn State offensive and defensive mistakes to post a 29-16 victory over the Nittany Lions before a crowd of 55,204 at Camp Randall Stadium today. Penn State scored first on a 25-yard field goal by Mike Reitz, but linebacker Gary Buss intercepted a Mike Cooper pass and returned it to the Penn State 19-yard line. Rufus Ferguson scored on a three-yard sweep two plays later to give Wisconsin a 7-3 lead. Penn State regained the lead in the second period on a 15-yard pass from Bob Parsons to Greg Edmonds. A 68-yard pass from Neil Graff to a wide open Larry Mialik put Wisconsin ahead 13-10 at the half. The Badgers boosted their lead to 16-10 on a 42-yard field goal by Roger Jaeger early in the third period. The score was set up when the Lions fumbled the second half kickoff. Penn State tied the score 16-16 on an 11-yard pass from Cooper to Edmonds, but Reitz missed the conversion that would have given Penn State the lead. Wisconsin won the game with two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 27-yard pass from Graff to Terry Whittaker and a 52-yard pass from Graff to Mialik. Both scores were set up by Lion mistakes — an interception and a fumble. The Lions wound up with nearly twice as many first downs (23-12) and total offense yards (392-215), but were on the short end of a 29-16 score.

Penn State 28, Boston College 3

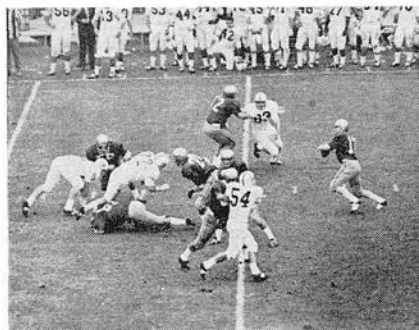

Chestnut Hill, Mass., Oct. 10 — Penn State ended its two-game losing streak with a 28-3 rout of previously undefeated Boston College here today before 25,222 at BC's Alumni Stadium. The Lion defense, led by All-American Jack Ham, was the key to the victory. Penn State picked off seven Boston College passes, tying a school record, in evening the season record at 2-2. Boston College scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Larry Berridge. Penn State took the lead at 7-3 in the second period one a one-yard plunge by Franco Harris. The defense scored the Lions' next touchdown. Linebacker Gary Gray blocked a BC punt in the third period and Ham picked the ball up and ran it in 42 yards for the score. The Lions added a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter on one-yard runs by Joel Ramich and John Hufnagel to boost the final score to 28-3.

Syracuse 24, Penn State 7

University Park, Pa., Oct. 17 — A Penn State Homecoming Day crowd of 50,540 watched in dismay as Syracuse ground out a 24-7 victory over the Nittany Lions at Beaver Stadium today. The Lion offense, hampered by the absence of Lydell Mitchell, was inconsistent throughout the game; and the defense was unable to stop the Syracuse ground game in the first half. The visiting Orangemen led 3-0 at the end of the first period on a 29-yard field goal by George Jakowenko. Fullback Marty Janusz-kiewicz scored on runs of seven and one yards in the second period to give Syracuse a 17-0 halftime lead. Penn State finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth period on a one-yard plunge by Joel Ramich. A two-yard pass from Paul Paolisso to Tony Gabriel gave Syracuse the final margin of victory.

Penn State 38, Army 14

West Point, N.Y., Oct. 24 — Sophomore quarterback John Hufnagel made the most of his first starting opportunity here today, leading Penn State to a 38-14 victory before a regional television audience and 41,062 fans in Michie Stadium. With Hufnagel at the controls of the revamped offense, the Lions drove 73 yards the first time they got the ball. Hufnagel ran 32 yards for the score. John Hull's 28-yard field goal made it 10-0 at the end of the first period. Army countered with a 42-yard kick by Arden Jensen in the second quarter, but a two-yard run by Fran Ganter and a 35-yard interception return by John Skorupan gave the Lions a 24-3 halftime lead. Jensen hit his second 42-yard field goal of the day in the third quarter, but Hufnagel countered with a one-yard scoring run. A seven-yard pass from Bernie Wall to Joe Albano cut the score to 31-14 at the end of the third period. Mike Cooper's 18-yard pass to John Skarzynski gave Penn State its final points in the closing seconds.

The Lion defense, led by ends Bruce Bannon (83) and Steve Prue (54) puts the pressure on Boston College quarterback Frank Harris.

Penn State 42, West Virginia 8

University Park, Pa., Oct. 31 — Penn State hit West Virginia early, hard and often here today in romping to a 42-8 victory before 48,932 fans at Beaver Stadium. Sophomore quarterback John Hufnagel again directed the rejuvenated offense, running for one score and passing for another. The Lions scored first as Mike Smith returned a punt 75 yards to the West Virginia six-yard line. Fullback Fran Ganter scored from the one to give the Lions a 7-0 lead after 3:24 of the first period. Gary Hull blocked West Virginia's next punt and Steve Prue returned the ball 26 yards to the Mountaineer eight-yard line. Hufnagel dashed around end on the next play to boost the Lion lead to 14-0. Gary Deuel ran 51 yards for another Penn State score early in the second period and the Lions ran their halftime lead to 28-0 on a 42-yard pass from Hufnagel to Edmonds. The catch was Edmonds' sixth TD reception of the year, setting a Penn State record. A four-yard run by Franco Harris and a one-yard sneak by Mike Cooper gave the Lions a 42-0 lead in the fourth quarter. West Virginia averted a shutout with a 47-yard pass play from Bernie Galiffa to tight end Jim Braxton.

Penn State 34, Maryland 0

College Park, Md., Nov. 7 — Penn State kept its powerful ground game in gear here today, grinding out a 34-0 victory over Maryland before 23,400 at Byrd Stadium. The Lions rushed for 345 yards while the defense limited the Terps to 43 yards on the ground. Penn State scored at least once in every period. The Lions scored on a 10-yard run by Lydell Mitchell, a three-yard run by Gary Deuel, a six-yard run by Deuel, a one-yard plunge by Mitchell and a 49-yard gallop by Bob Parsons.

Penn State 32, Ohio U. 22

University Park, Pa., Nov. 14 — A crowd of approximately 43,000 turned out in the rain to celebrate Mike Smith Day at Beaver Stadium. Actually, it wasn't planned that way, but Smith stole the show in Penn State's 32-22 victory over Ohio University. The senior defensive halfback set a school record with four interceptions as the Lions ran their season record to 6-3. Smith's 28-yard interception return gave the Lions a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. His second interception was followed by a 20-yard Lydell Mitchell run for a 13-0 Penn State lead. Ohio U. narrowed the margin to 13-7 in the second period on a 45-yard run by Bill Gary. A nine-yard jaunt by Franco Harris boosted the Lion lead to 19-7, but Ohio U. reduced that to 19-14 at halftime on a four-yard run by Gary. Mitchell's six-yard run gave Penn State a 25-14 lead at the end of the third quarter. Mitchell added his third touchdown of the day on a three-yard run in the fourth period. Gary matched Mitchell's TD total with a five-yard run to round out the scoring. The Lions amassed 372 yards rushing with Harris (133) and Mitchell (112) both breaking the 100-yard mark.

Penn State 35, Pitt 15

University Park, Pa., Nov. 21 — Penn State concluded its 32nd consecutive non-losing season here today, beating Pitt 35-15 before 50,017 at Beaver Stadium. The Lions won the game early, scoring on their first offensive play and building a 35-9 lead at halftime. George Landis recovered a Pitt fumble on the first scrimmage play of the game. The next play saw Joel Ramich go 25 yards for the score. The Lions made it 14-0 moments later on a 39-yard run by Franco Harris. A 29-yard field goal by Joe Spicko got Pitt on the scoreboard. Harris got his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard plunge early in the second period. A three-yard run by Fran Ganter boosted the lead to 28-3. Fullback Tony Esposito bulled in from one yard out to narrow Pitt's deficit to 28-9, but Harris got his third score on a one-yard run for the Lions' 35-9 halftime margin. A four-yard run by Pitt's Dennis Ferris closed out the scoring in the fourth period.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The list of all-time Penn State football lettermen includes every varsity letterwinner since the sport was officially started at Penn State in 1887.

The Nittany Lions have had 28 players earn four football letters, five men win five letters and one player achieve the unusual distinction of being a six-time letterman. The longevity award goes to L. R. Scholl, who won his varsity S in 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900 and 1901. Mr. Scholl became a civil engineer and spent most of his life in Williamsport, Pa., until his death in 1961.

The list of five-time lettermen includes Charles M. Atherton (1890-94), H. P. Dowler (1889-93), R. A. "Bob" Higgins (1914-19), C. C. Hildebrand (1887-91) and J. S. Rumble (1896-1900). Higgins, Penn State's second All-American as an end in 1919, was the coach at his alma mater from 1930 through 1948. Charles Atherton was the son of George W. Atherton, Penn State's seventh president.

The four-year lettermen were Jesse Arnette (1951-54), R. N. Berryman (1911-13, 1915), H. A. Clark (1913-16), J. J. Colone (1942, 1946-48), L. C. Cooney (1944-45, 1947-48), R. L. Cummings (1899-1902), Charles Drazenovich (1945-49), W. T. Dunn (1903-06), J. A. Dunsmore (1893-96), John Finley (1945-48), A. B. Gray (1907-10), Roosevelt Grier (1951-54), E. E. Hewitt (1898-1901), C. H. Hile (1888-91), J. L. Mauthe (1909-12), W. B. McCaskey (1892-95), E. McCleary (1906-09), H. B. McLean (1887-90), E. E. Miller (1910-13), Negley W. Norton (1944-49), Elwood Petchel (1944, 1946-48), A. C. Read (1889-92), H. D. Robb (1916-19), Sam Tamburo (1945-48), D. W. Very (1909-12), L. E. Vorhis (1906-09), H. A. Weaver (1907-10), and E. G. Yeckley (1902-05).

Dunn was Penn State's first All-American, making the Walter Camp team as a center in 1906. Tamburo was also an All-American in his fourth year, earning selection as an end in 1948.

FUTURE SCHEDULES OFFER CHALLENGE

Eleventh game legislation by the National Collegiate Athletic Association has added interest and an intersectional flavor to Penn State's future football schedules.

Coach Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions have added Sugar Bowl champion Tennessee to their 1971 schedule. The Volunteers are added to a card that includes all three service academies plus such intersectional opponents as North Carolina State, TCU, Maryland and Iowa.

Traditional rivals Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia round out an 11-game schedule that stacks up well against any in the nation.

Future Lion schedules are equally attractive.

Penn State has added 1971 Rose Bowl champion Stanford as an 11th game opponent for 1973, 1974, 1975 and 1976. The last three dates will be at Penn State.

The 11th game opponents add excitement to future schedules that already included such names as Illinois, Miami, Nebraska, Iowa and TCU for the years ahead.

The "regulars" such as Syracuse, Pitt, West Virginia, Army and Navy are permanent fixtures on future schedules.

The Pennsylvania State University

The Pennsylvania State University was chartered in 1855 as one of the pioneer institutions in a beginning national movement to offer higher education to all classes of society.

By 1862, when Abraham Lincoln signed the land grant act "to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes," Penn State had already awarded its first Bachelor of Scientific Agriculture degrees. In 1863, it was designated as the land grant college of Pennsylvania by the State Legislature.

From humble beginnings, the University has grown to be the twelfth largest in the nation with a student body of more than 45,000 and a faculty of 3,200 members. The University has awarded more than 135,000 degrees.

The University currently offers bachelor's degrees in 118 separate fields. Graduate programs are available in 118 fields.

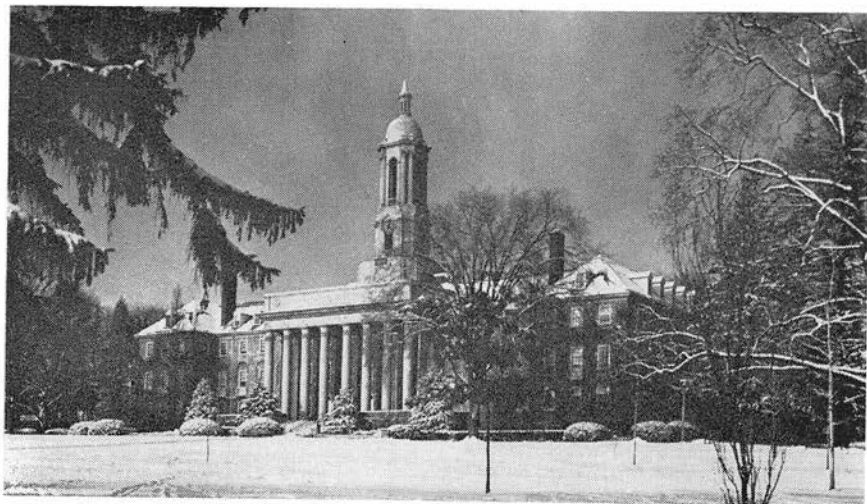

A distinctive feature of Penn State is a system of 19 Commonwealth Campuses, strategically located throughout Pennsylvania to bring the University within commuting range of virtually every person in the State. These campuses offer the first two years of the baccalaureate degree as well as terminal two-year programs in engineering and related technologies.

The central campus at University Park, located in the heart of the Commonwealth, is devoting more and more of its efforts to third and fourth year undergraduate instruction and graduate work. The Capitol Campus near Harrisburg also offers third and fourth year undergraduate programs and graduate work at the master's level. Other graduate centers are operated at King of Prussia, and Erie.

The newest unit in the University is the College of Medicine at the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Hershey. Made possible by a $50,000,000 allocation by the M. S. Hershey Foundation, the college graduated its first class this spring.

The University's physical plant comprises 14,775 acres of land and is valued at $280,000,000.

Dr. John W. Oswald

President, The Pennsylvania State University

Dr. John W. Oswald is Penn State's 13th president. He assumed the office of the presidency on July 1, 1970.

Dr. Oswald came to Penn State from the University of California where he had served as executive vice-president since 1968. He was president of the University of Kentucky from 1963 to 1968.

Born in Minneapolis, Minn., Dr. Oswald is a graduate of DePauw University. He received his Ph.D. in plant pathology from the University of California in 1942. As an undergraduate, Dr. Oswald excelled in the classroom and on the athletic fields. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa as well as captain of the football team. He also earned varsity letters in basketball and track.

After receiving his doctorate, Dr. Oswald entered the Navy. He served until 1946 and had more than 50 combat missions as a PT boat captain and divisional commander in the Mediterranean, earning the Navy Commendation Medal.

Dr. Oswald returned to the University of California after his release from the Navy. He was assistant professor of plant pathology and plant pathologist in the Agricultural Experimental Station at Cal's Davis campus.

In 1953, Dr. Oswald received a Fulbright grant to the Agricultural University of The Netherlands. He returned to Cal's Berkeley campus in 1954 as chairman of the Department of Plant Pathology. He was promoted to full professor in 1957 and began concurrent duties as administrative assistant to the Chancellor of the Berkeley campus.

Dr. Oswald was promoted to the Office of the President of the state-wide University of California system in 1958. He served as academic assistant to the president, assistant vice president, vice president and executive assistant. He was named vice president for administration in 1962.

In his five years as president of the University of Kentucky, Dr. Oswald was instrumental in developing a system of 15 two-year campuses. He left Kentucky in 1968 to become the number two man in the University of California nine-campus system of more than 100,000 students and almost 10,000 faculty members.

A trustee of the Institute for Educational Management, he is serving as chairman of the Senate special committee on federal legislation for the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. He is also a member of the Association's standing committee on educational telecommunications.

Dr. Oswald is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education and an ex-officio member of the Commission on Academic Affairs. He is chairman of the Senate special committee on Federal legislation, one of the most vital assignments within the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

His professional and honorary memberships include Sigma Xi, and the American Phytopathological Society. He was a consultant to the National Science Foundation from 1960 to 1967. He holds honorary degrees from DePauw University, University of Louisville Centre College, the University of California, Davis, and Temple University.

Dr. Oswald is married to the former Rosanel Owen of Birmingham, Ala. They have two daughters, Elizabeth and Nancy, and a son, John, Jr.

Robert J. Scannell

Dean of the College of Health,
Physical Education and Recreation

Dr. Robert J. Scannell succeeded Ernest B. McCoy as Dean of the College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and director of the Sports Research Institute on July 1, 1970. He had been Associate Dean since 1967.

At Penn State, the position of dean of the College of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation is distinctive in that it combines responsibility for academic programming, intramural and intercollegiate athletic activities, and student recreation in one administrative unit.

As administrator of the Sports Research Institute, Dr. Scannell directs a unique program which utilizes coaches, medical personnel and researchers from many disciplines throughout the University in both practical and theoretical study of sports in contemporary society. The Institute was established early in 1969.

The dean is a graduate of Notre Dame, where he received a bachelor of science degree, magna cum laude, in physical education and earned three varsity letters in football. He was awarded the master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees, in physical education, by Penn State.

Dr. Scannell joined the Penn State faculty in 1961, following three years at John Adams High School, South Bend, Ind., where he was chairman of the physical education department, teacher, and football and swimming coach.

In 1963, he was appointed Dean McCoy's representative for Commonwealth Campus programs. In this capacity, he was responsible for the development of instructional health and physical education and intramural and intercollegiate athletic programs throughout the Commonwealth Campus system of the University. In 1967 he was named associate dean for undergraduate resident instruction, with responsibility for the academic programming of the College.

Dr. Scannell, whose teaching and research interest focus on motor skill learning and program administration, has published articles in professional journals and presented papers at meetings of the American and Pennsylvania State Associations for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, of which he is a member. He has also served as editor of the Pennsylvania Journal of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

He has devoted considerable time and effort to the University Senate in recent years, serving on various committees and as Senate vice-chairman (1967-68) and chairman (1968-69). He is currently active in the Academic Planning Commission of the University, serving as chairman of the committee responsible for stating the various missions of the institution.

He is married to the former Regina Fechan of Kansas City, Kansas. They have four children.

Edward M. Czekaj

Director of Athletics

When Ed Czekaj (pronounced CHECK-eye) moved into the athletic director's job on July 1, 1969, he brought 16 years experience in athletic administration to the position.

Most of that experience was gained at Penn State under Ernest B. McCoy, the man who recommended that Czekaj move up to the top position.

As athletic director, Czekaj succeeded McCoy, Dean of the College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and director of athletics since 1952. Czekaj's promotion, in fact, was recommended by McCoy, who continued to serve as dean of the college of health and physical education and director of the Sports Research Institute until June 30, 1970.

Czekaj, 49 years old and a 1948 Penn State graduate, had been associate athletic director since 1967 and business manager of athletics since 1957. He continues to serve as business manager.

He joined the Penn State staff in 1953 as assistant graduate manager of athletics. In 1955 he became ticket manager and assistant business manager and in 1957 he was promoted to business manager. He was named associate athletic director July 1, 1967.

He was on the athletic staff at The Johns Hopkins University from 1948 until 1951 and was with the Marine Corps in Korea in 1951 and 1952, with the rank of captain.

As an undergraduate, he played varsity football and basketball and was an end on the Nittany Lions' unbeaten 1947 team which played in the Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1, 1948. He received a master of education degree from Penn State in 1954.

In January of 1969 he was named "College Athletic Business Manager of the Year" by the College Athletic Business Managers Association meeting in Los Angeles.

On the national level, he is a member of the College Athletic Business Managers Association (having served as president in 1965) and the National Association of College Athletic Directors, serving on the publications committee of that organization. Active on the NCAA Lacrosse Rules and Tournament Committee, he has served as vice-president, member of the long-range planning committee and chairman of the statistics committee. He is a member of the U.S. Gymnastics Federation Council as well as a member of a special NCAA committee to investigate additional support for championship events which incur deficits. He has been inducted into the Helms Hall of Fame Foundation for business managers.

He has been the meet director for NCAA gymnastics and wrestling championships and in 1968 was cited by the NCAA wrestling rules committee for his outstanding direction of the national wrestling tournament. He also has directed Olympic trials in gymnastics and wrestling and annually serves as director of the Pennsylvania high school championships in track, golf, tennis, volleyball, rifle and cross-country.

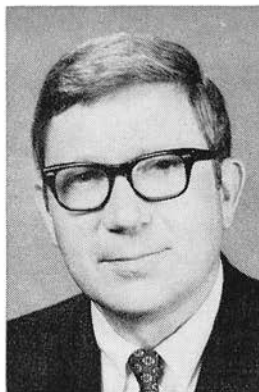

On the sectional level, he is chairman of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) long-range planning committee, a member of the finance committee, president of the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastics League and president of the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association.

A native of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., and a 1941 graduate of Ramsay High School where he played football and basketball, Czekaj is married to the former Virginia Gallup (Penn State '48) of Port Allegany. They have two children.

PENN STATE RADIO TEAM

FRAN FISHER

Penn State will have a new team in the radio booth as well as on the football field this fall.

Jim Tarman, Assistant to the Athletic Director and Director of Athletic Public Relations at Penn State, will join Fran Fisher as the new broadcast team for the 1971 Penn State Football Radio Network.

Fisher, special projects director for the University's Division of Broadcasting, will do the play-by-play for the second year. He had been color announcer for four years prior to last season.

In addition to his on-the-air duties as color announcer, Tarman will be executive producer of the network for the Penn State athletic department. The network, which includes more than 40 stations throughout Pennsylvania and surrounding states, is one of the nation's largest independent networks.

The Fisher-Tarman team is a familiar one to Penn State football fans. Tarman is the host and Fisher serves as interview specialist and film narrator on "TV Quarterbacks," Penn State's weekly television show during the football season.

Before assuming his current position with the University, Fisher was with station WKVA in Lewistown for eight years. He has also worked at station WHJB in Greensburg and station WQED-TV in Pittsburgh.

His more than 20 years of experience in radio and television include play-by-play and color coverage of many Penn State athletic events. He has also broadcast St. Vincent College football and basketball games and many high school events in the Lewistown and Greensburg areas.

MEMO TO PRESS-RADIO-TV

The material in this brochure was compiled for your convenience in covering Penn State's 1971 football season. Contents of this booklet and changes in plans and personnel will be supplemented before and during the season by the Sports Information Office.

Should you desire additional information, services, or material, contact Jim Tarman, John Morris or Barry Jones at 235 Recreation Building, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa. 16802, Telephone 814-865-1757.

When making requests for working press credentials allow time for mailing. For late requests, tickets will be left with attendant at press gate immediately behind West stand of Beaver Stadium. If wire or telephone service is required, please make necessary arrangements through your Western Union or telephone office.

WORKING PRESS: Admittance to the Beaver Stadium press box will be limited to the working press only. Press box passes are marked with row and seat numbers and assignments will be made upon receipt of request. Working space in the press box is at a premium, so in some cases admittance is limited to those papers actually covering for Sunday editions.

RADIO: There are six permanent radio booths in Beaver Stadium and facilities to make several additional temporary ones when necessary. One permanent booth will always be occupied by the Penn State Football Network. Another of the remaining permanent booths will be assigned to the visiting team's official station. For comfort, announcing crews should be limited to four persons plus one spotter for each team. Opponent stations should indicate when requesting credentials whether or not they will require a spotter for the Penn State team.

TELEVISION: Penn State's "live" television appearances are designated by the N. C. A. A. Television Committee, and facilities will be assigned in accordance with N. C. A. A. approval. This year, the Sept. 25 game at Iowa will be televised regionally and the Dec. 4 game at Tennessee will be a national telecast on ABC. The remaining games will be televised on a delayed basis on a state-wide network.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Press photographers will be assigned press box or sideline credentials or both, depending on requirements. Field passes are normally limited to daily newspaper, wire service, and magazine photographers with one caption writer or messenger available to each photographer. Field photographers must not stand in front of spectators nor pass in front of players' benches and are not permitted to enter the stands except with special permission. The "press box photo" pass allows the photographer to work on the top of the press box roof, or in any of the enclosed areas of third deck of the press box specifically designated for photographers. The same rules apply to newsreel photographers. Camera crews making the coaching films for the opponent school will be limited to three persons.
